Award Information

All artwork will be returned by mail to the student 30 days after the award ceremony. The State Librarian Award winner's artwork will remain on permanent display at the South Carolina State Library unless requested otherwise below.

If I win the State Librarian Award, please return my artwork after one (1) year of display at the South Carolina State Library: ☐

Talking Book Services Calendar:

Each year, SC Talking Book Services creates a wall calendar featuring artwork from the current year's program. The calendar includes the student's artwork, first name, and age.

Photo/Video Disclaimer:

By participating in South Carolina State Library events, you acknowledge and agree that you may be photographed or recorded by staff, photographers, videographers, or other attendees. Please note that all events are held in public spaces.

Artwork Release Form

I hereby authorize the South Carolina State Library (SCSL) and South Carolina Talking Book Services (SCTBS) to obtain the student's artwork and to display it for purposes of public judging, inclusion in the Art Gallery ceremony, publicity, and promotional materials (webpage, SCTBS Facebook page, virtual gallery, Talking Book Services Calendar). The student will only be identified by first name, age, and grade level.

The winning artwork will be returned to the student 30 days after the award ceremony. If the artwork is chosen for the State Librarian Award, it is understood that the piece becomes a permanent part of the SCSL collection unless requested otherwise, in which case the artwork will be returned after one (1) year on display.

I understand that by signing below, I am granting permission to use the student's artwork as listed above. I acknowledge that participation in the Talking Book Services Art Gallery is voluntary, and neither the minor nor I will receive financial compensation. I also acknowledge that I am fully aware of the contents of this release at the time of signing this document.
